

PAID VAPING CESSATION PROGRAM FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

The BReATHE Study is a research project funded by the Florida Department of Health and led by Dr. Elisa Trucco at the FIU Center for Children and Families. The program is designed to help teens reduce or quit nicotine vaping.

Program Details

- 6 free 1-hr group sessions for teens ages 14-18
- Learn strategies to manage cravings and reduce vaping
- Uses science-based approaches

Sign up at the Referral
Link or QR Code:

redcap.link/breatheprogram

Who Can Participate?

High school students who vape nicotine and want help to reduce or quit use.

Refer a Student

Students can be referred by counselors, school staff, parents, or the students themselves.

Important

- Voluntary participation
- Parental permission required for students <17 years old
- Up to $160 for students who complete the program and complete surveys

Contact the BReATHE Study Team by:
emailing breathestudy@fiu.edu or texting us at 786-322-4479.